ACTION

Skagit Council of Governments (SCOG) staff and Technical Advisory Committee recommend approval of the Transportation Element Consistency Review Process.

DISCUSSION

The Skagit-Island Regional Transportation Planning Organization (SIRTPO) approved a transportation element consistency review process in 2013. Since the dissolution of the SIRTPO, SCOG has not yet updated the review process to reflect the dissolution and references to SCOG as the regional transportation planning organization.

Certification of transportation elements is a duty of regional transportation planning organizations per RCW 47.80.023\(3\). A redline version showing changes made since the 2013 SIRTPO version and the proposed version is available here.
