Complaint Procedures

These procedures cover all complaints filed under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Civil Rights Restoration Act of 1987, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, relating to any program or activity administered by SCOG as to sub-recipients, consultants, and contractors. Intimidation or retaliation of any kind is prohibited by law.

The procedures do not deny the right of the complainant to file formal complaints with other state or federal agencies, or to seek private counsel for complaints alleging discrimination. Every effort will be made to obtain early resolution of complaints at the lowest level possible. The option of informal mediation meeting(s) between the affected parties and the Title VI Coordinator may be utilized for resolution.

SCOG will not investigate a discrimination complaint against itself. Any complaint alleging discrimination by SCOG, which is received by SCOG, will be forwarded to the WSDOT Office of Equal Opportunity.

Procedures

1. Any individual, group of individuals, or entity that believes they have been subjected to discrimination prohibited by Title VI nondiscrimination provisions may file a written complaint with SCOG's Title VI Coordinator. A formal complaint must be filed within 180 calendar days of the alleged occurrence.

2. Upon receipt of the complaint, the Title VI Coordinator will determine its jurisdiction, acceptability, and need for additional information, as well as investigate the merit of the complaint. In cases where the complaint is against a sub-recipient of federal highway funds, SCOG will assume jurisdiction and will investigate and adjudicate the case.
3. Once SCOG decides to accept the complaint for investigation, the complainant and the respondent will be notified in writing of such determination within five (5) business days. The complaint will receive a case number and will then be logged in SCOG's records identifying its basis and the race, color, national origin, and gender of the complainant.
4. In cases where SCOG assumes the investigation of the complaint, SCOG will provide the respondent with the opportunity to respond to the allegations in writing. The respondent will have 10 business days to furnish SCOG his/her response to the allegations.
5. Within 60 calendar days of receipt of the complaint, SCOG's investigator will prepare an investigative report for the Executive Director's review. The report shall include a narrative description of the incident, identification of persons interviewed, findings, and recommendations for disposition. This can be a Title VI Specialist, SCOG's Title VI Coordinator, or other person designated by the Coordinator.
6. The investigative report and its findings will be sent to SCOG's legal counsel for review.
7. Any comment(s) or recommendations from SCOG's legal counsel will be reviewed by SCOG's investigator. The Investigator will discuss the report and recommendations with the Executive Director. The report will be modified as needed and made final for its release.
8. Once SCOG's investigative report becomes final, the parties will be properly notified of the outcome and appeal rights.
9. SCOG's investigative report and a copy of the complaint will be forwarded to WSDOT's Office of Equal Opportunity with 60 calendar days of the receipt of the complaint. The Office of Equal Opportunity will share the report with FHWA, Washington Division Office, as part of its Annual Title VI Update and Accomplishment Report.
10. If the complainant is not satisfied with the results of the investigation, s/he shall be advised of their rights to appeal SCOG's determination to the WSDOT Office of Equal Opportunity. If a complaint is still not satisfied, the next appeal is to FHWA, Washington Division Office; United States Department of Transportation (USDOT); or the United States Department of Justice (USDOJ). Appeals must be filed within 180 calendar days after SCOG's final resolution. Unless new facts not previously considered come to light, reconsideration of SCOG's determination will not be available.
11. SCOG will serve as appealing forum to a complainant that is not satisfied with the outcome of an investigation conducted by a sub-recipient. SCOG will analyze the facts of the case and will issue its conclusion to the appellant within 60 calendar days of the receipt of the appeal.
12. An annual log of complaints will be maintained by SCOG and will contain the following information for each complaint filed:
 - The name and address of the person filing the complaint;
 - The date of the complaint;

- The basis of the complaint;
- The disposition of the complaint; and
